The 10th Annual New Jersey Invasive Species Strike Team Conference

We're getting closer to the annual event set for April 11th at Duke Farms. Have you registered yet?

The conference fee is $69 and includes lunch. It will last from 9 am - 3:30 pm. Click here to view the conference agenda and learn about the over 15 speakers that have wide-ranging expertise on rare and invasive species. CEU units are available. It will be a great opportunity to learn and collaborate among our peers in the conservation community!

Enjoy the beautiful rare species below - they are why we keep up the fight on invasive species!

And don't forget to click the link for our brief survey!

The federally listed bog turtle has a stronghold in New Jersey. It's also highly threatened by invasive species. Copyright photo courtesy of Brian Zarate.

Golden-winged warblers are a beautiful and state endangered species. Come and learn about efforts to conserve this species.

Swamp Pink is a federally listed plant. Learn about the variety of threats facing this gorgeous species.

Sponsors and Exhibitors

The Strike Team is seeking event sponsors and exhibitors. Sponsor benefits include free registration and screen recognition on our digital program. Limited exhibitor space is available and includes a table, chair and digital screen listing. Click here to download the sponsorship form. For more information, contact the Strike Team Development Director, Lisa Jordan at ljordan@fohvos.org or 609-730-1560.

We really need your thoughts!

We'd like to get a stronger response on the Strike Team data system survey - including our phone app and web-based map and data downloading functions.

- Survey takes less than 10 minutes
- Your input will lead to improvements to help all of our efforts to control invasives!
- We want to hear from everyone that supports the Strike Team - even if you DON'T use the app or website. Just let us know that this is the case.
- To learn about the Strike Team's data services, please click here to download a summary describing functions of the app, web-based services and NJ IPC Connect.

Please take the survey!

The Strike Team needs your help to fight invasive species throughout New Jersey. By making a membership donation, you directly fund our efforts to keep invasive species at bay and protect our native plants and wildlife. Donate through the link below!

Donate

The above link will take you to the PayPal donation page for Friends of Hopewell Valley Open Space. The Strike Team is a project of FoHVOS, so any donations you make will still fund strike team efforts. Thank you for your support!
